Transit Stop on Courthouse Road will be Temporarily Removed

(Issued April 19, 2021 at 11 a.m. EST) – The Town of Cobourg would like to advise residents that the transit stop located at 580 Courthouse Road, in front of Halcyon Place Apartments, will be temporarily removed for the duration of the Golden Plough Lodge construction.

In working with Northumberland County staff, it was determined that re-routing the bus stop/shelter would be very costly and challenging in order to create a turnaround to accommodate the larger buses. Moving forward, the transit stop will be removed effective May 3, 2021 until the summer of 2023.

Transit riders are encouraged to use the nearest transit stop located at the intersection of Elgin Street and Courthouse Road.

COVID-19 Safety Protocol Reminder
Non-medical masks or face coverings are mandatory on all buses and at transit shelters to reduce the risk of spread of COVID-19. The use of public transit should be for essential trip purposes only during the Provincewide Shutdown and Stay-at-Home Order.

About The Town of Cobourg

The Town of Cobourg is a lakeside community (population 19,500) located on the north shore of Lake Ontario halfway between Toronto and Kingston and has been recognized multiple times by MoneySense Magazine as "One of Canada's Best Places to Live" in populations under 25,000.

Founded in 1798, Cobourg is rich in heritage offering a vibrant downtown, sophisticated small town atmosphere and renowned waterfront that serves as a popular getaway destination. As the largest town in Northumberland County, Cobourg is personified by historic Victoria Hall, hosts a 27.4 million community centre, an educated and skilled labour force, flourishing commercial sector and supportive municipal government. Cobourg has received the Federation of Canadian Municipalities Sustainable Communities Award, accolades from the Accessibility for Ontarians with Disabilities Act Alliance, and multiple heritage, environmental, and event awards.
