

Book Review

WHAT WE'RE READING

Genre: Mystery

Sunshine Vicram has returned to her hometown as the newly elected sheriff of Del Sol, New Mexico. She expects her biggest crime wave to involve an elderly flasher named Doug. But a teenage girl goes missing, a prisoner escapes and she starts to remember details from her own unsolved abduction all while working with a handsome FBI agent and an attractive U.S Marshal all in her first day on the job!

At the start of each chapter there is a “quote” from the “Del Sol Police Blotter” about something that happens in this quirky town. Each one is hilarious, for example, “Suspect arrested for shoplifting a travel-sized toothpaste and for murdering his neighbour. The incidents do not seem to be related. - Del Sol Police Blotter”

This novel is funny, suspenseful and full of witty banter. Its got romance, mystery, action and humour. I couldn't put it down and a few times I literally laughed out loud. What more could you ask for? It's the start of a new series so I can't wait for more books to be published! If you loved Janet Evanovich's Stephanie Plum series, you'll love this one.

FOR MORE DETAILS, ASK YOUR LIBRARIAN.