HUMAN LIBRARY®

unjudge someone.

This FREE community event offers an opportunity to learn more about diverse populations through persons with lived experiences of stereotyping, biases, and prejudices.

At the Human Library, you can borrow a person "A Human Book" and have a conversation with the Book about their story. You will have the opportunity to "unjudge someone," ask questions, possibly learn something new, and perhaps talk to someone you normally would not have the opportunity to meet otherwise. In this safe place,

You have a chance to examine and explore your own conscious and subconscious biases.

You might choose from titles such as Cannabis Entrepreneur, Police Chief, Recovered Opioid Addict, Once Homeless, Environmentalist and Queer Person.

This is an impactful opportunity to learn, explore, and embrace diversity. Difficult questions are expected, appreciated, and answered.

You can come to read one Book or stay to read 2, 3, or more! Final checkout is at 7:00 p.m.
