3.1.2 Chief Administrative Officer (CAO)

Role: The CAO may speak to the media on matters of strategic importance, organizational changes, or issues that require a higher level of authority. The CAO may authorize divisional Directors or Managers to respond to media requests as the appropriate subject matter experts.

Authority: The CAO may speak to operational matters regarding the Corporation of the Town of Cobourg. Their statements reflect the overall direction and management of the Municipality, and they are authorized to address any media inquiries that have significant implications for the Municipality.

3.1.3 Mayor and Council

Role: The Mayor is the official spokesperson for Municipal Council. Media requests seeking a quote or information from Cobourg Council will be delegated to the Mayor. If the Mayor is not available for comment, the request will then go to the Deputy Mayor followed by individual members of Council as determined by the Mayor.

Authority: Elected officials may speak to the media regarding Council decisions, governance, policy, and other matters of public interest in their official capacities.

While elected officials are encouraged to coordinate with Communications staff, they retain the discretion to comment on issues related to their roles as representatives of the public. However, they must ensure that their statements are aligned with Council decisions and do not contradict established municipal policies.

3.2 Media Inquiry Procedure

3.2.1 Receiving Media Inquiries

All media inquiries must be immediately forwarded to the Communications Manager.

Employees who receive media inquiries should refrain from providing any information or statements and should direct the media to the Communications department, informing the media that all inquiries must be handled by authorized personnel.

The official method of communication for requests from the media is email, phone call or in-person.

social media accounts. The Communications Department will share access to all accounts, passwords and account information with IT. To ensure continuity of operations, where possible, social media accounts will be linked to Town of Cobourg Communications email communications@cobourg.ca and not to the personal email addresses of account administrators.

Employees or departments are prohibited from creating or eliminating any Town of Cobourg social media account without the approval of the Communications Manager.

3.6 Incident Response

When an crisis occurs, the media have a duty to keep the public informed. The Town of Cobourg is committed to working collaboratively with members of the media to get accurate and important information to residents. However, will do so in a manner that keeps media and Town of Cobourg personnel safe.

When the Town of Cobourg is responding to a call for service, only the Incident Commander, Officer in Charge, Public Information Officer (PIO) or a designated point person, should communicate with media. Personnel responding to the incident must remain focused on their work for the safety and security of themselves and the individuals they are responding to.

3.6.1 Creating a Safety Zone

Due to health and safety, protection of personal or identifiable information, and to ensure the integrity of a potential crime scene, members of the media should not be allowed to enter an active incident site. If it is unclear where the active scene ends and public space begins, the use of scene tape is recommended to cordon off the restricted area. If tape is not used, it is the responsibility of the Incident Commander or designated point person to create a safety zone for media.

Once the incident has been cleared and the scene is safe, the Incident Commander or designated point person may give media a tour of the incident scene.
