This policy provides guidelines to the Library Board, Library Staff and Volunteers with respect to solicitation on Library property. This includes public areas inside and outside the Library building.

Solicitation that impacts the enjoyment of the library or interferes with library operation is not permitted.

This includes, but is not limited to:

- Soliciting
- Canvassing
- Protesting
- Unauthorized selling
- Recruitment
- Distribution of leaflets
- Fundraising, except as approved by Library administration
- Petitioning

Exceptions to this policy shall be made at the discretion of the Library CEO, or designate, when it is in the interests of the Library and the community.
